Royal Insurance Company.

FIRE AND LIFE.

CAPITAL TWO MILLIONS STERLING.

This important company, in many respects the greatest of its kind in the present age, has appointed an agency in this city. The head-offices are in London and Liverpool with branches in Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Manchester, Bristol, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, Newcastle, Southampton, Montreal, Toronto and other cities.

The ROYAL is remarkable; for the promptitude and liberality of its settlements: for the largest life bonuses (£2 per cent per annum) ever continuously declared during 15 years by any Co.; for the enormous extent of its transactions, shewing £'60,000 in new life assurances for 1862, and a Fire revenue of £360,000 per annum; for its security, which has given rise to the proverb "as safe as the Royal;" for the accumulated funds in hand, over one million sterling; for its annual income, over half-a-million sterling; and for the correct calculation of its mortality tables. Hence the English press of all countries, including over 90 leading papers, speaks in the highest terms of this company.

The report for 1862 shews that all the property of the Co. amounting to £810,070 is real and substantial property;" the amount now exceeds one million sterling. The increase, during 14 years, of Fire business was 900 per cent, and on Life 1250 per cent.

Messrs. H. A. GREEN and Co. are authorised to issue policies for Fire and Life to a very large amount, at moderate premiums, the Co. being anxious to extend its foreign business, which already shews an annual revenue of £200,000. Life claims can be settled without reference to England. For further particulars please apply to

EDITOR'S TABLE.

A couple of Englishmen will shortly start for the provinces on a cruise for gold; they have bought a good sized whaleboat, have secured the services of an experienced pilot, who, besides knowing the river, says he is acquainted with the very spot where the gold is. They are all armed to the teeth, and seem to be prepared for the most adverse fortune. We suppose they intend to ascend the Rio Vermejo, and cross over the country. We would be sorry to dishearten our enterprizing countrymen, but we feel that the expedition is more hazardous than what they think, as the Vermejo is very narrow, and the current is so strong they must row up, and in many places cut away the branches to effect a passage. The Indians are extremely dangerous and are to be seen on either side of the Vermejo. On the whole, we think our friends would do much better to take the diligence in Rosario and trust to chance about the Indians on the road, than to undertake such a hazardous trip up the Vermejo.

Yesterday was a nervous day in town; the Mole-head was crowded. The Era came in true to her time, and small boats pushed off by the score to hear the news. The capture of Salto was confirmed, and a rumour circulated that they were fighting yesterday at Paysandu; this, however, appears incorrect, as the firing, which was going on there, we learn was the salute by the Brazilian gunboats, it being the Emperor's birth-day.

The ten thousand Brazilians in the Department of Paysandu turns out to be a hoax. Piris and Leandro Gomez are in Paysandu, and most people think there will be a fight at last in a few days between Flores and the Government troops.

All hope is now given up of the Iguarey, and she is not expected down here again with yerba for a long time. Some people say that she is being fitted out with rifledcannons. Yesterday's 'Nacion Argentina' contained a most inflammatory article about Paraguay; the statement that the Paraguayans kneel when the President passes is utterly false; the prevailing opinion amongst antiquated Argentines is that all the wars and revolutions which afflict these countries have their origin in the newspapers, and indeed with such leading articles before us as that of the 'Nacion Argentina' of yesterday, we must concur in the opinion. We regret sincerely to see such little harmony amongst South Americans; it augurs many troubles.

It is rather a remarkable coincidence that the terms of capitulation by Palomeque and the conditions granted by Flores, on the surrender of Salto, were negotiated by two Englishmen, Mr. Coleman and Mr. Williams; through the influence of these gentlemen terms were agreed upon, and a deal of fighting avoided. Several of the garrison had to swim across the river according to the statement of an Entre Riano paper.

Next week there will be a grand "funcion" in Chascomus on the occasion of the marriage of the Scotch Clergyman, Rev. Mr. Ferguson. We hope some of our subscribers will send us full particulars of this joyous affair. There appears to be a lull amongst the crack ploughers, and the challenge sent by a San Vicente ploughman has never been accepted by any of the Chascomus men. As our friend in San Vicente is most anxious to show the people in Chascomus some ploughing feats, we think that he ought to get an opportunity to show his prowess.

Where to put the new race course is the great dispute amongst our turf-loving friends. Belgrano is too dear, Merlo is too far, and the Lomas de Zamorra is not to be thought of. Why not select Flores? Land about there is cheap, it is easy of access, and every accommodation can be had. We hope to see the matter speedily settled.

The Provincial Budget, which has been laid before the house, promises to be a rather interesting document. We learn that it exceeds last year's by about four hundred thousand dollars, and that a great increase in the salaries of all the officials from the Governor down is talked of.

One of the most interesting subjects of small talk about town are the magnificent wall glasses which Mr. Anchorena has imported from Europe. They are so constructed as to run in and out of a case similar to a door. They are the most costly glasses ever imported into the River Plate, and extend from the ceiling to the floor. Such glasses are very common in Europe, but not usually found in houses, save of a certain class.

The cricketers have had the courtesy to invite us to attend the coming match on the 8th inst. We are glad to see the club reviving; the shares are at par, and if our friends beat the Bombay gentlemen, we have no doubt will command a premium. A notice from the honorary secretary will be found in another column. All who love good sport, should not fail to attend. We confess, however, we feel rather nervous as to the result of the game, as our cricketers are slightly out of practice.

One of the Entre Rios papers states that Urquiza is aware already of the Paraguayans having crossed the Parana, and privately acquainted a gentleman who visited him the other day; it is currently rumoured that the large purchases of horses in Entre Rios and Corrientes, which it was said were for the National Government, were for Virasoro's division of cavalry.

The raising of the blockade of Salto, by the Brazilian Admiral, proves beyond all question that the Brazilians are assisting Flores; either that, or they only wanted an excuse to take off the blockade, which seems no way improbable, since Baron Tamandare issued an order allowing vessels carrying foreign flags to load and unload. The plain fact of the matter is, that the Brazilian blockade is more fictitious than anything else.

Agents of the Government are said to be everywhere on the look out for horses, which are at present very scarce owing to the drought last year and the Indian invasion this. Luckily the Argentine soldiers can tame in their own horses, and in a few weeks whole battalions can be mounted; but the scarcity of horses is beyond all question, and many estancieros insist that the Government could not get ten thousand horses to-day, even paying five hundred dollars per.

Flores' squadron is still in the Uruguay, and the little Uruguay gunboat Quinteros seems to have been ready to do great execution at Salto, but unfortunately Palomeque showed the white feather too soon. The whole fleet of the liberator will now anchor off Paysandú.

On Monday at 12 o'clock, the Danish schooner Hilda will be sold at auction at the Boca. She is a very good vessel, and we believe adapted for the rivers.

The Provincial Government Railway we see is adapting its regulations to the times. On Thursday return tickets to Lujan and back will be issued. Our friends will have an opportunity to visit this picturesque little country town for the low charge of $30 m/c. This is a move in the right derection.

The new steamer, Estrella del Norte, left yesterday on a pleasure trip to San Pedro, with a select company on board. We promise our readers a graphic description of the trip through the Capitan and small arroyos of the Parana. She carries the "Standard" on board.

The reported sale of Messrs. Wendelstadder's wool, of the Banda Oriental, at five patacons, it seems is not correct. We understand that four dollars six reals, National currency, was offered but declined.

Señor Marmol, the new Argentine Minister to Brazil, had an interview yesterday with Senhor Paranhos, but the result of the conference is unknown. Next week Sr. P. will be officially received by the President of the Republic.

We regret to say that another proof of the scandalous insecurity of the prisons has been afforded. No less than eight prisoners escaped from the Villa Mercedes; some of the escaped felons were actually in irons. It is high time that the Government adopt some stringent rule. The very best plan would be to hold the turnkeys or prison keepers responsible, and make them take the place of the escaped felons.

It is so seldom that we hear of any wealthy Argentines making large charitable bequests, that we willingly call attention to the munificent bequests of Sr. Almagro:—

Women's Hospital, $25,000.
Foundling Asylum, $25,000.
Female Penitent Asylum, 25,000.
Men's Hospital, $25,000.
Mendicant Asylum, $20,000.
Foreign Hospitals, $20,000.

The latest news we have from Montevideo is that Servando Gomez is at Santa Lucia, and Saa is looking up Piris to incorporate; it is said that Gomez is about to be relieved of the command of the army, and that Saa be his successor, but Saa demands first that his men be paid and accoutred, and that all arrears due him be at once liquidated.

Several lots of wool had arrived in Montevideo, but we find it impossible to discover the prices; we are told however that the market is firmer there than here.

The astounding news of the seizure of the Brazilian steamer Marques de Olinda, by the Paraguayan Government, caused quite an excitement through town yesterday. People began to see that Paraguay is in earnest. The full particulars of the capture will be found in another column. War between Brazil and Paraguay is now inevitable, and which side the Argentine Government will take is the great question. There can be no doubt that Flores has at last succeeded in setting the whole of the River Plate in a blaze; it remains to be seen what Washington or Napoleon will turn up to extinguish it.

To-night the debut of the Juvenile Opera Singers takes place at Colon. Nearly every seat in the house is taken.

The Bank Mauá, in Salto, lent Flores 20,000 patacons.

The Legion Militar has been ordered to the camp; they leave in the first train on Monday.

The wool market was very dull yesterday, but we are happy to say that a subscriber in the Villa Mercedes, Mr. Michael Murray, sold his wool at the very high price of 10d. Taking into consideration the very flat state of the market, this may be regarded as equal to the best sale this season.

THE BRAZILIAN INVADING ARMY.

The 'Correio' of Rio Janeiro, Nov. 23 gives the following account of the army encamped at Pirahy for operations in Banda Oriental, according to despatches received from Rio Grande under date 17th ult.

Marshal Propicio and General Osorio had organised the several brigades, which were to cross the frontier within a week.

The army comprises 2 divisions, the 1st under Brigadier-General Osorio, and the second under Brigadier-General Jose Luiz Menna Barreto.

Each division is composed of 3 brigades, those of the 1st being:—

1st brigade, Colonel Sanchez Brandon, including the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th regiments of light cavalry, of which the 2nd will do frontier duty at Quarahim.

2nd brigade, Lieutenant Colonel Carlos Raisin, including the 13th and 3rd battalions of infantry, a company of the latter covering the line of Chuy.

3rd brigade, Sor Andrade Neves, formed of three regiments of National Guards: 5th from Taquary, San Jeronimo and Triunfo, 6th from Rio Pardo and Encruzilhada, and 10th from Itaquy, the last remaining to guard the frontier of Itaquy.

The 2nd division is made up as follows:—

1st brigade, Brigadier-General Portinho, composed of 4 regiments of Nat. Guards: 1st from Cacapava and Cachoeira, 2nd from Bajé and San Gabriel, 3rd from Alegrete, Uruguayana, and Missiones, 4th from Yaguaron and Piratinim.

2nd brigade, Colonal A. Antonio Sampaio, including the 6th and 12th battalions infantry of the line.

3rd brigade, Colonel Valencia, with three regiments of National Guards, 7th from Santa Maria, 8th from Cruz Alta, and 9th from Passo Fundo.

Besides these two divisions, a corps, of Brazilian volunteers will act under General Netto, but not depending from the General-in-chief.

The President of Rio Grande had also called out six more regiments of National Guards. The 11th, 217 strong, to be stationed at San Borja; the 12th, 256 strong, at Bagé; the 12th, 403 strong, and 14th, 607 strong, both to form the reserve of the invading army, and encamp at Bagé; the 15th, 271 strong, at Yaguaron; and 16th, 271 strong, at Chuy.

Lieut. Col. Antonio Peixoto Accevedo is named Deputy Adjutant-general to the army of operations. Col. José Luz Cunha to command the 10th National Guards. Capt. Fernando Bernardo Vernes to be Adjutant-major of the 3rd brigade, 2nd division.

The contract for supplying the army with provisions has been taken by Don José Luiz Cardoso Salles, at 670 reis (17 pence) in camp, and 740 reis on march per diem each man, during six months, under penalty of 30,000$. Col. Gomez Mello offered to contract at the rate of 600 reis in the Banda Oriental, and 550 within the frontier, but could not find bail.

The 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th regiments of National Guards are to receive pay, at the rate of 260 reis, (6½ pence) per day each man.

The 5th National Guards, from Rio Pardo, and two batteries of the 1st artillery, under Lieut. Col. Mallet, from San Gabriel, were on march for Pirahy, as also the 7th National Guards and two other regiments of the 3d brigade. The La Hitte park of artillery, sent from Rio Janeyro, arrived at Pelotas on the 3d, en-route for head-quarters. The brigade-surgeon, Dr. José Pires Farinha, was to take charge of the medical department of the army. The horses for the cavalry were purchased by Government at 8 to 10 dollars each, and many turned out useless.

The whole army comprises four regiments of cavalry, four of infantry, and ten of National Guards, which probably average 400 each, making a total of 7,200 rank and file.

General Netto's volunteers already number 1500, and his Excellency has published a manifesto calling on his valiant countrymen to expel "the assassins, savages, and vandals, called the Government of Montevideo, who have committed such horrible and manifold atrocities on the peaceful Braziliian residents in Banda Oriental."

GREAT NEWS FROM PARAGUAY.

WAR WITH BRAZIL.

MANIFESTO FROM WASHINGTON.

The Esmeralda went aground yesterday near San Isidro, and the passengers arrived in town by train; Mr. Puente has kindly favored us with a supplement of the Progreso from Corrientes, 28th ult., which contains the following news.

On the 12th November the Brazilian steamer Marques de Olindo, after leaving Asuncion, was stopped a few leagues up the river by the Paraguayan steamer Tacuari, and forced to return to Bahia Negra, where the President of Matto Grosso and other passengers, as well as the crew, were at first detained but afterwards allowed to go on shore.

On the same day the Minister of Foreign Affairs sent a despatch [No. 1] to the Brazilian Legation, informing Count Vianna Lima that owing to the occupation of Cerro Largo in the Banda Oriental by the Brazilian army, contrary to the Protest of Paraguay, all relations with Brazil must be suspended, no vessels of war or traders carrying the Brazilian flag to be allowed in Paraguayan waters, and only foreign neutral vessels to be allowed to pass up to Matto Grosso.

On the 13th ult. at 9 a.m. the Brazilian Minister not having yet received the previous despatch, sent a note (No. 2) demanding explanations about the seizure of the Marques de Olinda, and detention of the President of Matto Grosso. Next day (14th) Minister Berjes in reply (No. 3) referred the Brazilian Minister to the despach of the 12th inst. which reached him on the night of the 13th.

On the 14th Count Vianna again wrote (No. 4) protesting against the act of hostility without previous declaration of war, and demanded passports for himself family and suite to return per Marques de Olinda. Minister Berjes replied same day (No. 5) sending the passports, but the steamer was not granted.

On the 16th, Sr. Berges sent a circular to the Foreign Ministers, announcing the rupture, and that neutral vessels will be allowed free navigation.

On the 12th, the Hon. Mr. Washburne communicated a despatch from Mr. Seward, Secretary of State at Washington, praising the attitude of Paraguay, and condemning the ambitious conduct of Brazil, which is likely to kindle a war through all these countries, and is a menace to the Banda Oriental and Paraguay.

Two thousand muskets have been taken on board the Brazilian steamer, and treasure said to amount to $400,000. The President of Matto Grosso escaped in a small boat, but is said to have been recaptured.

NEWS FROM THE URUGUAY.

The 'Povenir' of Gualeguychú dates to the 2nd inst. Letters from Concordia to the 25th ult. state on Gen. Urquiza's authority that the Paraguayan army has already crossed the frontier. Gen Juan Saa and his brother Felipe with 1800 men were marching to meet Flores. The commander of one of the Brazilian gunboats received orders from Admiral Tamandare not to impede loading or discharging vessels at the saladeros? This was probably owing to Mr. William's demand for damages.

General Netto with 1650 Brazilian volunteers was at Salsipuedes, waiting to be reinforced by 500 more. The blockade of Paysandú is not rigorous, as anyone is allowed to go in or out on paying $4. Leandro Gomez is in that town: last week the garrison went down on the beach to challenge the Brazilians to fight on dry land, but the latter declined.

Sor. Bustamante, secretary to Flores' with Goyo Castro, and Dr. Ferreyra, president of the Revolutionary Committee, have arrived at Concepcion: the doctor was supposed either to be seeking an interview with Flores, or to attend a consultation on Col. José Urquiza.

The "Uruguay," of Concepcion, 1st inst., is in mourning for the demise of Colonel José Urquiza, son to General Urquiza, who died in the prime of life on the 30th ult. His funeral was attended by the Governor and two hundred citizens. We read severe remarks on Mr. Lelong, and deprecate the title "Chevalier d'Industrie" applied to him.

ATTACK AND CAPTURE OF SALTO.

At 7 o'clock on the morning of the 25th ult. (Friday) the Colorados appeared in full force on a southern slope near the town, pushing forward 100 cavalry to the saladero of Hariaga on the bank of the river in order to open communication with the Brazilian gunboats, which accordingly moved up from the port to said saladero. The rebels having cut the wires of Mr. Williams' estancia encamped on the left bank of the Arroyo Ceibal. At 10 o'clock they began to move, and started at a gallop for the Dayman pass, leaving a small picquet behind, which disappeared at sun-down. Some Skirmishing ensued with the cavalry of the garrison under Colonel Domingo Gonzalez, but the enemy drew off.

Colonel Piris with his 700 men despaired of saving Salto and retired to a place called Saera, on the road to Paysandú.

On the 28th (Monday) at 11 a.m. General Flores sent the commander of Salto, Colonel Palomeque an intimation to surrender the town and military stores, offering a free pass to all the officers, and permission to remain in the Republic with their military grades if they chose: making Palomeque responsible for all events in case of refusal.

Two English gentlemen, named Henry Colman and Richard Williams, were bearers of these terms and along with the principal citizens urged the commander to accept them. At four in the afternoon Flores received the reply at his encampment at Blanquendo, Palomeque only asking a slight modification, which was ultimately granted. Colonel Suarez then entered and took possession of the town, repressing all disorder among his victorious troops. At 5 o'clock the Colorado artillery fired a salute of 21 guns, which was responded to by the Argentine fleet. The commander and officers of the garrison (150 in number) went on board the Argentine steamer 25 de Mayo to be conveyed to B. Ayres, the church bells ringing a merry peal, and the citizens apparently rejoicing at the event.

A force of 250 men, with 4 pieces of cannon, 2500 muskets, 150,000 cartridges and a quantity of powder fell into the hands of Flores. Colonel Santana who was a prisoner in irons was named military Commander, and D. Andres Rivas chief of police, the minor officials being all left unchanged.

On Wednesday (30th ult) Flores set out for Paysandú, embarking his infantry and artillery in boats towed by the steamer Gualeguay; and the cavalry proceeding by land. He published a number of manifestos, and left 300 infantry with two squadron of cavalry to hold Salto. When the steamer Era passed down, the infantry had landed at S. Francisco to march on Peysandú.

MONTEVIDEO.

The 'Reforma' of Friday contains little news. The Liverpool steamer Herschell landed four English and two Portuguese passengers. The Brazilian steamer Paranense, with Counsellor Paranhos on board, only delayed an hour in port before starting again for Buenos Ayres. The corvette Bahiana is hourly expected from Rio. The police have commenced to water the streets near the Plaza. The 'Plata' states that the saladeristas are about to make a loan to Government, in order to be exempted from the new tax on cattle.

The three soldiers tried last week by court-martial have been sentenced to four, three, and two years' imprisonment respectively. President Aguirre has commuted the sentence of death passed on two Italians named Geronimo Pitameglio and Miguel Gerese, spies of General Flores, who are now condemned to perpetual exile.

Major Olivera arrived in town from head-quarters, with letters from Gen. Servando Gomez to November 28th. Colonel Aparicio was pursuing Caraballo towards Rocha, and the Colorados were throwing away their arms in the flight. Some divisions of Government troops were operating in Minas and Maldonado, as appears from letters from Pan-de-Azucar and Rocha.

A foreign legion is in formation at Montevideo, under Colonel Vacaro, who has already enlisted over 200 men. The 'Reforma' extracts from the 'New York Herald' some severe articles on the Brazilian aggression.

A fire broke out on Wednesday night at the drug-store of Leon de Oro, but was fortunately extinguished, and the owner, M. Dandy, thanks the Chief of Police that not a single article was stolen from the place, owing to his assistance.

The Spanish Minister publishes a notice that any subject taking service in the new Foreign Legion will, ipso facto, lose his title of Spaniard, and all right to the protection of his Government.

The Spanish Dramatic Company is playing at Solis Theatre.

NEWS FROM RIO GRANDE.

The eclipse of Oct, 30th passed off with a little rain and wind, and was visible from 11 a.m. till 3 p.m. On the same day there was an excursion on the tramway as far as the cemetery.

The bishop left for Cahy, 12th ult. aboard the steamer Flecha to lay the first stone of St Bernard's church at Port Guimaraens. The Ferreira's bridge, in the district of Aldea, fell in on the 16th Oct. A body of 20 National Guards has been despatched from Sant Anna to chastise the Indians who murdered a German colonist at Novo Petrolis.

At Alegrette, the Rev. Father Luiz de Souza Nogueira, chaplain to the 6th battalion, died from the effects of a pistol-shot which he received last May from the hand of an assassin. Two convicts have escaped from the prison of San Antonio de Patrulha: one of them lay under sentence of death.

The Hanoverian schooner Thetis from Cardiff with coal for the steam packet Co. struck on a bank 7 miles NE. of the bar, on the 3rd Nov. The crew was saved. The captain excuses himself on the plea of a fog, which only existed in his own brains; but the underwriters are very agreeable people and will pay without any difficulty.

The steamer Union ran into a fishing boat on the night of 1st Nov. the boat being without lights. The crew, along with a woman and three children, were taken on board the steamer unhurt, but they lost all their baggage.

An Italian widow, aged 103 years maltreated a slave-girl aged 7, so horribly that the authorities had to interfere, but the slave's life is despaired of.

MRS. CASE'S BALLOON ADVENTURES.

The 'Journal do Commercio,' 19th ult. gives the following narrative by Mrs. Elizabeth Case who was accidentally carried off in Mr. Wells' balloon, by the breaking of the cords before our Yankee friend was enabled to take his seat in the car. The valiant lady was whirled about at the mercy of the winds, being wholly ignorant of aeronautic science.

"Mr. Editor——At the request of hundreds of friends, I venture to communicate an account of my aerial voyage; last Sunday, in which I was suspended several thousand feet over the picturesque city of Rio Janeiro, and enjoyed a panorama, the handsomest that ever mortal eye beheld, and which neither Milton nor Shakespeare could describe, or Raphael or Michael Angelo convey to canvas.

"The city seemed to me like a map, which I examined with the greatest pleasure that ever I felt in my life. While the balloon seemed to hold a fixed point in space, the city gradually diminished to a hamlet, and escaped from beneath me. The houses were children's toys, and the hotses and carriages appeared ants, whose movement was still preceptible. The handsome bay in which I expected to take a dip was a pool covered with microscopic vessels.

"Strange as it may appear the earth instead of convex seemed concave, the horizon rising up around the aeronaut; so that the surface below was apparently a hollow bason.

"The breaking of the cords produced on me no disagreeble impression, the balloon rapidly rising to a height where all was still as the grave. I was borne about by the winds without feeling it. I experienced no dread in looking down from such a height, but rather was full of joy and felt as safe as if lodged in the palace of San Cristoval which I could clearly discern. I waved the Brazilian and Yankee flags, with pride, for it was the first time they were held by a woman over the metropolis of South America.

"My expectation to fall in the bay did not unnerve me, as I am a good swimmer and fond of salt water. Petropolis, Rio Grande and the suburbs seemed to approach me, and the mountains diminished into little hills.

"Instead of seeming to descend from the aerial paradise to the Eden at my feet, the earth, as it were, came to meet me; and I waved my flags to salute the thousands of persons in the streets and on the roofs waiting to receive me, and landed safely in the Rua San Juaquin. The people of the house in which I entered so unceremoniously received me with every kindness, and I presented myself in the balcony to salute the public. In a few minutes Mr. Wells arrived and took me back to the garden whence I had involuntarily ascended, and will again ascend, next Sunday.

"I ferventlly hope that Mr. Wells will be enabled to get up his great balloon for crossing Brazil and the whole continent, in which he will take a corps of scientific men to make observations, which will prove as useful to Brazil, as the ascensions of the Coxwell and Glaisher in England, or Nadar in Brussels.

THE VERY LATEST.

The 'Esperanza' of Goya has the following alarming news:—

10,000 Paraguayans have passed the Uruguay at the pass de los Libres.

This news was communicated by Dn. Placido Lopez, commander of the frontier.

In Corrientes recruiting was the order of the day to fight the Brazilians, and Entre Rios was expected to follow suit.

Ramires and Caseres are said to be at the head of the movement.

IMPORTANT TO SHEEP-FARMERS.

Chacra de los Alamos, near Quilmes,
December 1, 1864.

M. Duggan, Esq., Once de Setiembre.

Dear Mr. Duggan,

Hearing that the 'stated' weight of the fleeces of my 'rams' occasions some astonishment and some doubt, as to the age of the wool, I have pleasure in giving you some particulars, and shall be much obliged if you will make these matters known among your large connections, and recommend parties interested in sheep to visit my establishment and that of my partner in sheep, who is also my next door neighbour.

This year by reason, I assume, of the long 'seca' of the last summer and autumn and some sickness, I find all fleeces much lighter than usual. Last year six rams, one Rambouillet (Cabaña Imperial), of which two were five years' old, one two years' old, one twenty-three months' old, and two eleven months' old (none of the fleeces exceeding one year's growth), averaged 19½ lbs. wool. This year the same rams averaged only 17½ lbs.

I give you at foot the individual weights of the rams' wool for the two years. Samples of the wools of the rams, as also of the pure ewes and the mestiza ewes we have.

Each fleece was weighed separately last season (I weighed many with my own hands), the mestiza ewes averaging about 9½ lbs. wool, none giving under 7 lbs. This year, owing to the scab, I could not get a fair average. A considerable number of fleeces, however, I weighed separately, and they gave 6½ to 10 lbs., and 12lbs.; last year many gave 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, and one 18 lbs. wool, the lowest being 7 lbs.

We can show mestiza ewes against anything that can be brought, for three points collectively, viz: size, length of wool, fineness and weight of fleece.

Come and see them yourself, and send your friends and connections who want a class of animal to produce a long fine wool and heavy fleece.

I have some magnificent mestiza 'colts' which only require to be seen at leisure, to be appreciated. Send your friends out; seeing is believing.

Yours truly,

WILFRID LATHAM.

Rams—Shorn Oct. 23rd 1863.

El Visgo	1 year's wool	5 yr.'s old		22lb
El Largo	do	2	„	21½
El Muchacho	do	5	„	20
El Mellizo	do	23 months		18

Shorn Oct. 20, 1864.

El Viejo	1 yr.'s growth of wool	19½ lb
El Largo	do	14½
El Muchacho	do	14½
El Mellizo	do	16
El Lindo	do	20
El Guacho	do	19½

The falling off of the rams this year is to be attributed to sickness, by which all were affected, and more especially 'El Muchacho' and 'Largo.'

'El Largo' and 'Guacho' are own brothers, and these, as well as 'El Lindo' and 'Mellizo,' were lambed at our establishment.

The wool of the majadas sold last season for $120 per arrobe, and the year before for $125 por arrobe.

A CHALLENGE.

My partner and myself will show and weigh next November 200 fleeces of mestizo ewes against any 200 fleeces (of mestizo ewes), which can be produced by any establishment in the province, the condition of the wools being equal, for a reasonable wager.

Farther, we will show and weigh four fleeces of pure rams against any four fleeces of pure rams that any one establishment in the province can produce.

We will show and weigh 20 fleeces of 18 months old mestizo rams (the wool of 12 month's growth), against a like number produced by any cabaña in the Province (provided we do not sell the rams before the challenge is accepted).

We will 'sell' 100 fleeces of mestizo ewes against 100 fleeces of any pure negrette or mestizo ewes in the province, which shall produce the most money.

ROBBERY NEAR THE BOLSA.

On Thursday night some fellows got into the coach-yard opposite to the Bolsa, but whether with the intention of carrying off some of the rolling-stock or committing some other depredation was not clear. An awful alarm was raised by the serenos, and the lodgers of the Universello fancied it was a fire, rushing out to learn the facts of the case. The commissary having arrived when 18 'serenos' were clamoring and whistling with all their might at the entrance, he ordered 5 of them to go inside and explore. Fear paralyzed their limbs, and none of them dared even to reconnoitre the number of thieves inside. He then ordered them to go in en masse, leaving five to guard the entrance, but the latter were alarmed to remain alone, and, so the whole posse-comitatus plunged into the coach-yard, their lances advanced, and the lanterns showing the way. It appears the whole row was occasioned by three coachmen kidnapping three dusky beauties of the neighbouohood, but the latter effected their escape, and the parties being mutually reconciled, the Commissary thought it unnecessary to arrest the offenders.

The state of affairs on the Bolsa today was insupporrably dull, until after hours. About ten minutes to three a panting ounce broker rushed into the liquidation room and asked for gold. In a moment it was known that the Esmeralda had arrived and the word went round the hall "The steamer is in, and gold is up!" The important news will be found in another column.

It was rumored on 'Change that the Paraguay troops were crossing the Parana, but we learn on the highest information that this is incorrect and unless Urquiza moves, Paraguay will remain stationery.

Things are assuming the most serious complication, as will appear by the note of the American Minister in Asuncion, and the alarming notice of the French Minister in Rio to the French Legation in Montevideo (to be seen at Mr. Maxwell's reading-rooms).

Paper-money tottered, on the news from Paraguay being known, and the bulls were jocund in the Bolsa hall.

There were a few bills of exchange passed to-day on England at 49½, which now may be regarded as the rate.

TOBACCO de la PALMA,

Derives its name from the circumstance of "the secret of its preparation" having been first revealed to a lone traveller, by an Indian, while reclining at the foot of three palm trees, resting from the fatigue of a hard day's ride.

It is an article entirely different from any other in present use, and solely manufactured by the undersigned at their Steam Tobacco Factory.

Containing no Paraguay Tobacco it is free from that peculiar bitterness usually contained in Tobacco heretofore manufactured in this country for "pipe" use, while its strength is compagable with that of the American Tobacco.

Being nicely cut, it prevents this unnecessary trouble to the consumer, and packed in "tins," of convenient size, with adjustable covers, there is less to fear from drying than with other Tobaccos.

Owing to the high price of American Tobacco we consider this as an excellent substitute, and would particularly call the attention of those residing in the camp to the economy and advantage to be derived in the purchase of this article.

In consequence of the numerous applications made for this Tobacco in "packages," the manufacturers have concluded arrangements whereby, in the future, they will be able to dispatch packages of 1 lb. each.

At the manufactory will also be found Tobacco-fuerte-colorado picado para cigarillos, nicely enclosed in packages of ¼ lb. each; an excellent and convenient article for camp use.

Tobacco Frances of the best quality and at an exceedingly low price.

Having also the best and most convenient machinery in town for the cutting of Tobacco Negro, those who require large quantities cut with quick despatch and well done will find it decidedly to their advantage to patronize this Establishment.

The "Tobacco de la Palma" can also be obtained at the following well known places, viz.:

Messrs. Barry & Walker, corner of Calle Defensa y Moreno.
Muir & Urie, No. 162 Calle Defensa.
Claypole Brothers, 23 " "

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo,
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1863.

CONDITIONS.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p ⁄) per annum, which is liquidated ever six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes, can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.
